

BLACKSPACE SPRING 2019 WOKESHOPS + EVENTS

DURHAM WOKESHOPS

WOKESHOP: Ujima Talks

LOCATION: Blackspace Durham [212 West Main Street suite 103]

DATES: FIRST THURSDAYS February 7-May 2

TIME: 6:30PM-8PM

COST: FREE

FACILITATOR: Mariah M., guest facilitators

DESCRIPTION: This will be a space where members of the Blackspace community come together to discuss issues that we face as Black people in our interpersonal interactions, such as misogyny, patriarchy, sexism, and anti-agapeism. We want to foster a community of knowledge, self-growth, respect and understanding for all.

WHO IS THIS FOR?: Black and Brown youth of African descent

WOKESHOP: The Maroon Room

LOCATION: Blackspace Durham [212 West Main Street]

DATES: SECOND THURSDAYS, Feb 14-April 11

TIME: 6:30PM-8PM

COST: FREE

FACILITATORS: Mariah M., guest facilitators

DESCRIPTION: Do you find yourself neglecting the most creative part of yourself? The Maroon Room (TMR) is a place for the student artist to escape to just be an artist.

There are so many demands that artists have outside of the internal call to nourish themselves as writers, poets, painters, visual, and soundscape artists. TMR is a sequester for students to come and decompress, read, and work on their crafts accompanied solitude, soft pillows and snacks. This is a productive space with no pressure to complete or do anything but be. TMR will also double as office hours for Poetry Program Director, Mariah M. for current and prospective parents and students.

EVENT: Med City Cypher

LOCATION: CCB Plaza [201 Corcoran St. Durham]

DATES: Every Friday (unless it's raining or below freezing)

TIME: 9:19PM-11PM

COST: FREE

FACILITATORS: J Rowdy, Pierce Freelon

DESCRIPTION: Every Friday at 9:19PM Durham youth gather in downtown Durham at the bronze bull statue to rap, sing, make beats, and create community together — we call it the Cypher. Youth are challenged to improvise and think on their toes and to build self-confidence and empathy. It's group therapy through Hip Hop! Elements of Hip Hop have roots in ancient African traditions. We've effectively traded one African drum for another: the djembe (an African drum made of goat skin, stretched out over a wooden frame) for an MPC (plastic pads connected to circuits and a motherboard), producing electronic drums that resonate positive vibrations out into the streets. Hip Hop was born in the Bronx, New York, at a time when many Black and Latinx youth were slipping through the cracks of the social safety net. Arts programs were being eliminated from schools, and youth were left with few alternatives, so they took their creative energies to the streets. Durham is at a similar crossroads, with underfunded schools, and historic disinvestment in the Black and Latinx communities. Meanwhile, as downtown Durham has expanded rapidly with restaurants, hotels, festivals, and bars, youth and people of color are feeling marginalized, and pushed out. The Cypher provides safe space for kids to occupy the heart of our city every week, to speak their truth unapologetically, affirm self-esteem, and help the creative fires inside each of them radiate. In doing so, they transform, not only themselves, but the City of Durham as well.
